

“The Market for CEOs” (with Dirk Jenter)

- Submitted to the JFE on June 10, 2021. Rejected July 8, 2021
- Submitted to the JF on July 19, 2021. Received a revise and resubmit on December 8, 2021. Currently working on finalizing the revisions. In agreement with my co-author, we decided to update the database to 2021, and have implemented all of the changes the referees (and editor) asked for. The revision moved slowly in late 2022 and early 2023 because I was on the job market and then on a brief parental leave of absence. My co-author experienced some issues in 2024 that prevented him from working on the paper. We are now finalizing the response documents and the paper and hope to resubmit shortly.

“Continuity and Change on Corporate Boards” (with Adriana Robertson)

- Submitted to the American Economic Review: Insights on August 6, 2024. Summarily rejected August 6, 2024.
- Submitted to Management Science on August 12, 2024. Desk rejected on August 13, 2024, with the option to resubmit a revised version. (The editor had some concerns about the formatting but expressed that they would be interested in sending the paper out for review subject to the formatting issues being addressed.)
- Submitted to Management Science on August 28, 2024. Rejected on November 4, 2024.
- Submitted to the Journal of Financial and Quantitative Analysis on January 20, 2025. Received a revise and resubmit on February 25, 2025. Currently working on revisions.

Note: When we started submitting this paper (and even when we submitted it to the JFQA), the Journal of Finance: Insights was not accepting submissions—there was a delay of a few years from the original announcement to having the submission process open.
