SUBJECT: Annual Performance Review: January 1, 2024 – December 31, 2024

Both Texas A&M University and Mays Business School require that the performance of all faculty be reviewed on an annual basis. As noted in the Mays Faculty Promotion and Tenure Guidelines, the purposes of the annual performance review include:

- Creating a sound and logical basis for merit compensation recommendations
- Providing evaluative feedback regarding how well the individual is currently performing
- Providing developmental feedback regarding areas where the faculty member's contribution may be enhanced and/or improved in the future
- Providing feedback regarding progress toward promotion and/or tenure as relevant

Further, the Mays Faculty Promotion and Tenure Guidelines define four levels of performance for the key dimensions across which performance is reviewed. These levels of performance are:

- Excellent performance: a high level of performance that meets and exceeds norms and expectations and that is reflected by substantive indicators of excellence;
- Effective performance: performance that meets norms and expectations and that is reflected by substantive indicators of effective performance;
- Needs improvement performance: performance that falls below norms and expectations of effective performance as reflected by substantive indicators of needs improvement performance;
- Unsatisfactory performance: performance that falls below norms and expectations of excellent, effective, and needs improvement performance as reflected by substantive indicators of unsatisfactory performance.

This letter serves as your performance review for the 2024 calendar year. The following reflects information provided in your Faculty 180 submission. In addition, the tenured Finance faculty had the opportunity to review your annual report (containing detailed information about your research, teaching, and service) and current resume and provided me with their assessment and feedback. In the sections below, I first briefly summarize the main contributions you have made in each area, present the assessment of the tenured faculty, and provide my own independent assessment.

Research

Highlights of your research activity during the three-year evaluation window include:

- You had two publications in top Finance journals. This includes Common Fund Flows: Flow Hedging and Factor Pricing, forthcoming in the Journal of Finance; and The Oligopoly Lucas Tree, 2022, Review of Financial Studies.
- You received two revise & resubmits from top-six Finance journals (Review of Financial Studies and the Journal of Financial and Quantitative Analysis).
- You have a healthy pipeline of working papers.
- You and your coauthors presented at many conferences in the US and abroad.

Teaching

- You taught 3 sections of FINC 361.

Service

- You organized the 2024 Young Scholars Finance Consortium.
- You chaired the department's junior recruiting 2024-2025.
- You reviewed papers for high-quality journals.

Tenured Faculty Assessment

As you will see below, 6 of the Full Professors rated your research performance as “excellent.” We all feel that you are very hard working and successful in research. The two publications in top journals and two revise & resubmits are a testament to this. You are on top of your papers and move them through the publication pipeline. You have a healthy pipeline of working papers, which bodes well for the future. You present at many conferences, which helps your visibility in the profession.

You taught three sections FINC 361. Your teaching evaluations continue to be solid (“Effective Course:” 4.30; “Effective Instructor:” 4.39), which indicate a high degree of student satisfaction.

You took on two major service commitments. You organized the 2024 YSFC. You did an excellent job organizing this. The consortium was very successful. You chaired our junior recruiting efforts. This was very time consuming since we had an unusually large number of positions (6). You did everything very well and fast, which was much appreciated. You continue to review papers for high-quality journals. Such service to the profession is much appreciated as well.

Ratings (votes) from Full Professors

Research: Excellent (6)

Teaching: Effective (6)

Service: Effective (6)

As a colleague: Excellent (6)

Overall: Excellent (6)

Additional Comments from Full Professors

Wei is very hard working and an excellent colleague.

Department Head Assessment

I agree with the assessment and feedback from the Full Professors. You have a strong record of publications in the top and a healthy pipeline of working papers. You present your research at prominent conferences/venues and referee for the leading journals in the discipline. You are developing an impressive external reputation as a thoughtful scholar and are laying the groundwork for a successful promotion to full professor in the coming years. Nice work!

I am particularly grateful for your service contributions to the department in the past year, particularly your hard work on YSFC last spring and diligent and effective leadership of junior faculty recruiting last fall. I am impressed by your initiative, organizational skills, hard work, and commitment to excellence. Your efforts are having a tangible positive effect on the trajectory of the department.

Overall, your performance is excellent and I sincerely thank you for your contributions to the Adam C. Sinn '00 Department of Finance and Mays Business School. It is a pleasure to work with you!
